

The National Gender-Based violence (GBV) Strategy for Agencies Serving Immigrants is hosting:

GBV RESPONSE FORUM

Creating social and systemic change to better support
Newcomers, Immigrants and Refugees

NOVEMBER 24, 2024

12:30 - 5:00 PM PST

Hyatt Regency Hotel, Vancouver

Meet our Keynote Speaker

Ninu Kang

Ninu Kang comes to her leadership role with EVA BC with over 30 years of work experience in the areas of newcomer settlement, gender-based violence, and justice, equity, diversity and inclusion. With an academic background in counselling psychology combined with frontline work experience, she has developed key skills in clinical counselling, facilitation, and senior leadership. She is inspired in her work by young people who are the future of change. She aspires to learn from young people and stands committed to mentorship where needed.

During this forum, you will:

- 1 Engage in ways to create systemic and social change within organizations serving newcomers, immigrants and refugees.
- 2 Discuss challenges, best practices, and innovative programs and services.
- 3 Initiate and inspire new possibilities of collaboration across Canada through the National GBV Strategy for Agencies Serving Immigrants.
